several acrobatic performances marked the racing at Aqueduct yesterday afternoon, where another crowd of 10,000 tried unsuccessfully to beat the card. The weather was charming and the track was never in better condition for fast time. The mile record for the course was smashed in the third race when Louis Kempner's high class three-year-old, Oarsman, turned the distance in 1 39 1-5. According to the special arrangenent of the weights, Oarsman was in receipt Grenade, who was a hot favorite at 3 to 2. Oarsman was allowed to recede to 4 to 1, even though he was ridden by Redfern as against Callahan on Grenade. Futurita was backed down to sevens, while Young Henry and Contusion were both played heavily. The start was excellent. Oarsman rushed o the front, but Callahan put Grenade under choking pull, with the idea of letting him down later. Redfern, however, kept Oarsman in front to the end, riding him out, even though he had five lengths to spare when he passed the judge. Grenade took the place from Contusion by a neck, the crowd emit-ting a concerted growi at Callahan's per-

There was a reversal in form in the Oakdale Handicap for two-year-olds, at six furongs, when Frank Regan's Dick Turpin came home with the money. The Henry of avarre gelding carried big checks at fives Navarre gelding carried big checks at fives and made all the running, though Cochran could not prevent him from bearing out all the way down the stretch. He won in a drive by a length and a half from Race King, who was beaten down from 4 to 1 to 1 to 5 favorite, the latter beating Dolly Spanker, the top weight, by a head. Sweet Gretchen, 13 to 5, was never prominent. Every horse in the race was played. The time was 1:13.3-5. Jockey Troxier was neither weak nor blind from reducing when he rode Ice Water, 5 to 1, in the handicap for all ages, at seven furiongs, the opening event, for he rode a level headed race and landed the Water-cress mare an easy winner by two lengths in 1:26 2-5, a new track record. It was a somersault as to form, Ice Water's last race, when Troxier pulled her up opposite the jockey board, thereby losing place money, still being fresh in the public mind. Ostrich, a warm tip, after showing the way to the last furiong pole, finished second, a neck before Lord Badge, the favorite. Ascension, played heavily at 18 to 5, ran poorly despite flicks's herculean efforts to get her up.

The second race, for two-year-olds, at six furiongs, demonstrated the fact that Wotan, the even money favorite, has had enough racing this year. He ran gamely, but could not overcome the lead taken early in the race by Flammula, second choice, who disposed of him in a hot drive by three parts of a length in 1:14 3-5. Reliance, 10 to 1, who was kicked at the post and afterward indulged in a bumping match with W. C. Whitney's Mineola, ran third, a length away. Mineola was eight lengths behind him.

The first successful favorite was All Gold, in the fifth event, at a mile. He opened at 6 to 5, but the money came pouring into the ring in such volume that he closed at 7 to 10. Burns kept him on the extreme outside, the old Rayon d'Or horse winning in a drive by two lengths from Meistersinger, 10 to 1, who was in front at the last sixteen and a ring by two lengths from Meistersinger, 10 to 1, who was in front at the last sixt and made all the running, though Cochran ould not prevent him from bearing out all

AQUEDUCT TURF GOSSIP. W. C. Whitney Commends Starter Cassidy's

New Methods. Whitney paid a visit to the Aqueduct rack yesterday and accompanied Starter riage for the second race. Mr. Whitney expressed himself as being highly pleased with the system of starting that Mr. Caseidy has just introduced at the Queens County track and said that it would have to be adopted at all of the metropolitan courses in due time Mr Whitney, incidentally, secured the use of one of the gates used by Mr Cassidy and will school his horses to it this winter at Aiken, S. C. Mr. Whitney, during the afternoon, announced that all of his horses in England will be sold at auction the first week in December, including the Handspun, who ran third in the Middle Park Plate this year and is eligible for the Derby Mr Whitney denied the story that he had purchased the stock farm, Woodburn in Kentucky. His two-year-old colt Inflexible,

FAST MILE BY OARSMAN who was badly cut down some time age, will be brought down from Saratoga on Menday to join the other Whitney horses at Sheepshead Bay

A match race between Fred Burlew's Hello and M. L. Hayman's Orthodox was arranged at the track yesterday to be run some day at the track yesterial to be run some day next week. The two-year-olds will meet at a mile, to carry 115 pounds, with $1,500 a side and $1,000 added by the Queens County Jockey Club. The leading jockey in Austria is a boy named Bonta, who learned how to ride from John Huggins. W. C. Whitney's trainer in England. He has headed the list for two years and can do 95 pounds. Taral, who stands second, will sall for America from Hamburg on Nov. 5, on the steamer Auguste Victoria.

Trainer Richard Miller said yesterday that the champion three-year-old Africander will be able to race next year. The Star Ruby colt did not have a bowed tendon, as at first believed, but was suffering from a blow on the tendon which was cared by the application of poultices and a good bolling out.

Although Buttons was the hottest tip of the day Sir Troubadour was handed out for a good thing in the last race and was accordingly backed down from 100 to 1 to thirty. At the head of the stretch he broke a log just above the pastern joint and had to be destroyed. This race fairly bristled with supposed "sleepers" among them being Heir Apparent, Trepan, Sentinel, Cloverland, Erbe and Love Note, all backed down. Redfern, who rode Buttons, was fined 310 for not declaring with blinkers.

Starter Cassidy suspended Meade and D. O'Connor for the rest of the meeting for disobedience at the post.

Jockey Fuller was among the missing yesterday and Frank Farrell scratched Monadnoek from the Oakdal: Handicap as a result.

nadnock from the Oakdal Handicap as a result.

Just as a train for Brooklyn was moving slowly past the track after the races a woman, who tried to jump aboard, was thrown under the platform. A man grabbed her by the arm and pulled her but of danger just in time to save her from being killed. The accident caused a panic among other women, who would not beard the cars until the trains had come to a full stop.

The stewards discussed Troxler after the first race but gave out nothing.

More than a thousand season tickets have been sold for the coming meeting at Pimlico. It is estimated that about 300 horses will go to Baltimore to take part.

Oarsman and Dick Turpin, both winners yesterday, are trained by Frank Regan. There is much talk as to the real owner of Oarsman, who runs in the name of Louis Kempner. One story in circulation is to the effect that he belongs to a well known field layer who goes by the name of "Klondike."

Billy Oliver is making bales of money with All Gold. He cashed another big commission yesterday and also won heavily over Buttons.

W. GOULD BROKAW'S FAST TIME. His French Auto Covers a Mile in 1 Minute 3 3-5 Seconds.

At the Brighton Beach track yesterday, the hirty horse power French car of W. Gould Brokaw covered a mile in 1 minute, 3 3-5 seconds. This was done in a trial performance while practising for the races to be held t the track this afternoon under the auspices of the Long Island Automobile Club. is the best time ever made on the seashore track and while it will not be an official record demonstrated that the big racers of Frank La Roche, Harry Cunningham, George Canon and others will not have it all their own way this afternoon. Half a dozen of the racing cars have been studying the turns at the track during the last two days and quite a crowd has attended the free show. The a crowd has attended the free show. The cars could not show their best paces, how-ever, owing to the fact that the work of bank-ing and rolling the track was still in progress. Owing to a record breaking entry list and the necessity of splitting a couple of the nine races into trial heats the races will begin promptly at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

Blair School Athletes Elect Officers. The athletic association of Blair School held a meeting yesterday afternoon and elected officers for the ensuing year. The following were elected. John Mitchell, pres-

James Wenker, vice-president; Edward Lahn, secretary: Frank Carr, treasurer. There was considerable discussion over the football team. Owing to the injury of one of the players, the faculty of the school has a desire to cut the sport out at the school. has a desire to cut the sport out at the school. President Mitchell appointed a committee to arrange for basketbail. The school won the championship of the Bronx School League last year, and as practically the same team will be back another championship banner is looked for. Joe Gans After a Fight With Jack O'Brien

Owing to his success in his recent meeting with Joe Grim of Philadelphia, Joe Gans intends to arrange fights in the future with men heavier than himself. Gans, through men heavier than himself. Gans, through his manager, Al Herford, has issued a challenge to fight Jack O'Brien of Philadelphia when the latter returns from England. According to report, O'Brien sailed from the other side last Wednesday. If the mill is arranged it will take place at Boston or Philadelphia. Gans is confident that O'Brien cannot knock him out in any contest from six to twenty rounds. If O'Brien refuses to meet Gans the lightweight champion says that he will agree to face Joe Walcott or Young Corbett.

IN THE POOTBALL WORLD.

COMPARISON OF THE RIVAL YALE AND COLUMBIA TEAMS.

How They Size Up Man for Man-Pr vs. Cornell and Harvard vs. Indians Other Important Contests on To-day's Schedule-Williams Tackles Brown.

Man for man, the Yale team looks stronger than its Columbia rivals of to-day. Opposed to this is the fact that the Columbia eleven has steadily risen to the occasion so far in each succeeding game of its schedule. each succeeding game of its schedule. As succeeding opponents became stronger Columbia became stronger, and in each case strong enough to held the opposition safe. The Columbia team to-day will have the seasoning that comes from the victory over Pennsylvania to pit against the seasoned Yale team, an esprit de corps as stanch as that of their rivals, and it is not to be expected that the Yale men, win or lose, will go up in the air as the Pennsylvania men did, thus makingColumbia's task last Saturday easier. Again Columbia always has done well against Yale, whether it was a weak team such as Yale had in 1899 or a powerful team such as the Ells had in 1900. So in those intangible moral qualifications, which are sometimes more real in effect than they seem under before-hand analysis, the Blue and White faces the situation as well off as the Blue, with all the latter's prestige. In brief, stage fright is no more likely to come to the one than to

Comparing the teams individually, Yale looks the stronger at tackles and at ends. At tackle Hogan and Kinney of Yale are big, fast and experienced players and both good ground gainers-no stronger or faster than Thorp and Browne of Columbia, perhaps, but more experienced and members last year of a team that was invincible. Kinney is the best tackle on the field at getting down under kicks. But Browne and Thorp are no novices and are good fighters, the latter in particular being aggressive and a stiff proposition on the defence. Neither has shown the ground gaining ability of the Yale pair. The Yale ends, Rafferty and Shevlin, are another competent couple, fast and flerce tacklers. Columbia adherents set a good deal of store in their left end, Bishop, also a big, fast man, whose end has been turned but seldom, and they look for him to demolish interference and hold his own with Shevlin, generally considered the best end in the

In the middle of the line the Columbia folks elieve they have something on Yale. Bruce, the pivot man, is very steady and reckoned more active than Roraback of Yale. Neither passes any too well. Stangland, guard, is considered good enough to more than hold his own with his Yale opposite. The other guard position at Columbia is causing some uneasiness, as Tomlinson will not play, but with Bloomer not in the game Yale, with Morton and Batchelder or Miller-the last named light for a guard-is none too securely fixed at guard. The Yale backfield is fast and versatile-can punt, hit the line, is speedy and good on the defensive. Rockwell at quarter is sandy, a fine general and keeps his men on the jump--the best quarter back playing to-day. Jones, the Columbia quarter back, is Rockwell's equal as a general and in grit, and if he does not play to-day his absence will be a handicap. The other Columbia backs are heavy and can tear up an opposing

So far they not shown the knack of keeping their feet and to keep going that the Yale backs have, but have been improving in these points. Smith of Columbia is as good in defence as any back. Duell of Columbia is not bad on the defence, nor is Owsley of Yale—on the contrary Owsley is very proficient. Metcalf of Yale is very fast, a dangerous man in a broken field, much like Metzenthin of Columbia in his style of play. Either Bowman or Mitchell at full back for Yale is a more reliable punter than Columbia has.

Much has been heard of how well the Yale backs work together. Muffed punts are much backs work together. Muffed punts are much isses likely to determine the result than last saturday, so concerted effort is much more likely to be a determining factor. Yale's attack has been hard and relentlesses all season, but not entirely consistent, though as yet it has not been pitted against as good a defense as Columbias. Just what Columbia can do in sustained offence, she has not, owing to the turns her games thus far have taken.

can do in sustained offence, she has not, owing to the turns her games thus far have taken, been called on to show.

Of the other games to-day, the Princeton-Cornell controversy ranks next in importance to the Yale-Columbia debate. The game in Jersey brings together two teams that have not been scored on. The pravailing opinion is that Princeton's defence is good enough to keep the slate clean to-day. Cornell's condition to-day is doubtful. If Costello, the crack tackle, and Hunt, the crack guard get in the game, the Ithacans' chances will be brighter. The midweek accounts of Princeton's practice have had the usual references to slumps and fumbles, but these faults have generally disappeared in all the Saturday's games of the Tigers. Harvard's adversary to-day will be the much lighter Carlisle Indians, and the "coming Crimson eleven is expected to win by a comfortable margin. Still, the Indians always got at Harvard with much confidence. Bucknell, latter giving Princeton and Cornell hard games is not in good shape for Pennsylvania to-day. A game which will be keen in rivalry is that to be played between Brown and Williams. The New York University-Lafayette game makes a second local attestics. Lafayette game makes a second local attraction. The schedule follows:

The Yale football squadarrived here at 9 o'clock last night and put up at the Murray Hill Hotel. They expect to win to-day, but are not overloaded with confidence. There were more skinned noses and scratched faces than when they were here a week ago, tolling of hard practice for the Columbia game. Head Coach Chadwick came down ahead of the team, and so did Walter Camp. Mr. Camp is on his way to Princeton to see the Princeton-Cornell game and get a line on the Tigers. "Yale is always a bit nervous when she meets Columbia," he said, "and Columbia has the luck. One fumble by Yale and it might be all over to-morrow."

Mike Murphy said the Yale players were in better condition than when they played West Point last Saturday. "We rather think we'll win," he said, "but expect a close, hard game, say with a score of 12 to 6. We hardly think we can shut out Columbia."

"I, for one, don't know just what to think," said one Yale coach. "I haven't seen Columbia play. I wish I had. Our green centre men did fairly well at West Point, and that is encouraging. Sometimes I think we will win by a big score and theu again I would not be taken off my feet if Columbia wins. The situation is rather perplexing."

Mike Thompson of Georgetown was in the hotel on his way to Cambridge to referee the Harvard-Indian game. "A fine looking hunch," he said referring to the Yale men. "I like their looks."

The Yale bear was not in evidence nor was here any talk of betting.

General Oct. 30—Hobart took its last hard practice to-day before the Hamilton game. Several new plays and formations were tried and worked well. In the thirty minute scrimmage that followed the varsity scored four times. Brown and Shipler took part in the signal practice, but were not used in the scrimmage, Denp and McDougali taking their places. Hebart looks for a hard game to-morrow and a low score. The team left to-night and will remain in Utica over night, going to Clinton to-morrow morning. Twenty players were taken. Hobart will time up as follows. Left end. Wilson left tackle. Whitney: left guard. Sinclair, centre, Weeks right guard, Sunday, and digan left half, Shipler; right half, Brennan full back, Brown.

tensist game. The coaches at New York University have been working with the main idea of winning this game and it should prove interestinghe Lafayette has an exceptionally strong team. The line-up this afternoon will show several changes in the local team. Stevens, with his superior weight and speed, has displaced Rogge at full-back. The vacancy at left guard caused by the disqualification of Cohn will be filled by McMara from the law school. The team did not have hard work yesterday, as Coach Wilson did not care to run any risks. After half an hour's drill in catching punts and sending the ends down under kicks the 'varsity was eent through twenty minutes' fast signal work. The New York team will probably line up as follows: Left ead, Coanell; left tackie, Reilley; left guard, McMara: centre, Chamberlain; right guard, Coe: right tackie, Callahan: right guard. The remainder of the team when they left the campus to-night were in the pink of condition. dent instructors in the game, Tom Anderson of the Montelair Golf Club and George Strath of the Crescent A. C. Nicholls might be the on of either of the veterans, and the match was unique in the contrast between the new and the old schools, also of importance from the wager on the result, which was $250 a side. The professionals from nearly all the nearby links turned out for the occasion, George Low of Baltusrol, Stewart Gardner of Garden City, and John Jolly of Roseville serving as caddies and Alexander Findlay of the Newark A. C. being the referee.

In Wall Street yesterday betting upon the football game this afternoon between Yale and Columbia started in the Broad street curb market at odds of 10 to 4 and closed at odds of 3 to 1 in favor of Yale. R. W. Gifford placed early in the day about $100 in small wagers at 10 to t. "Gil" Greenway, the former Yale athlete, came on the curb with a wad of Yale money and placed about $500 at odds of 3 to 1. The largest single bet was $300 which George Adee, the former Yale quarter back, bet on his college team to $100 put up by A. Sartorius on Columbia. Strath held the party on the driving throughout, but he did not show his real strength on the greens until the last nine holes. Anderson was very good in the morning, while derson was very good in the morning, while Nicholls, who had to "scratch gravel" to win out, nas never played better on a metropolitan links. Setting out Nicholls had all the better of it, and, after being 4 up at the seventh, he was 3 up at the turn. At the end of the morning he was 1 up. Nicholls retained the lead and at the eleventh hole in the afternoon he had increased it to 2 up. PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 30.—Princeton had a very light practice to-day in view of the hard game with Cornell to-morrow. The Tigers did not line up, but had practice in signals, punting, receiving punts and getting down the field under kicks. With the exception of Hart all the men who were in the line-up against Dartmouth will play to-morrow. Hart's injured ankle will probably keep him out of the game and Kafer will play in his place. Dillon will keep his place at guard, but a strong substitute will be had in Rafferty in case Dillon should be forced to leave the game. Short will occupy the pivotal position, and for substitutes Bradley and Waller will be available. Trainer Jim Robinson says that with the exception of Hart all the regular eleven are in excellent condition for to-morrow's game. Although the team work of the eleven has been poor for the last few days, nevertheless the Princeton students feel hopeful of victory in the contest to-morrow, but it is thought that the Red and White may succeed in changing the Tigers' record of the season by making a score against the Orange and Black.

Williamstown, Mass., Oct. 30.—There is

he had increased it to 2 up.
Incidents followed quickly thereafter.
Strath won the tweifth by a splendid 3.
Anderson squared the match on the next
green and Strath won the fourteenth in 4, giving the lead for the first time to the veterans. They carried the lead to the home green, where Nicholis made a grand 3 and made the match a half. The play-off will be next Friday, at eighteen holes. The cards were:

Many of the players to take part in the second half of the annual team match between New York and Philadelphia to-day were at the Morris County links yesterday for practice rounds. The course was in fine order, and W. P. Smith, of the Philadelphia team, did an 80. Devereaux Emmet and R. C. Watson Jr., also made good scores, each recording an 82.

Score against the Orange and Black.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass, Oct. 30.—There is considerably more confidence among the members of the team for a victory over Brown since the outcome of the Syracuse contest. Williams played no game on Wednesday, and hence has had a chance to recuperate thoroughly from the Syracuse contest. The practice this week has been devoted to learning some new formations and to perfecting the tackle and end plays. On Wednesday, in place of a regular contest, the heavy freshman team lined up against the 'varsity in a practice game. Hoyne, the freshman full'back, will be taken to Providence on account of his fine showing in Wednesday's game. The regular line-up which faced Syracuse will probably enter the Brown game. The Garden City Golf Club has decided on the dates for the championship, Nov. 14 to 28, and for the annual class A and B handicaps, the latter also to begin on Nov. 14. A cup will be presented to the player making the lowest net score in each event, all members rated under ten playing in class A.

which faced Syracuse will probably enter the Brown game.

Territor N. J., Oct. 30.—The Cornell football players took up their quarters at the Trenton House, Trenton, to-day, and this afternoon the eleven accepted the invitation of the Lawrenceville School to hold the last practice before the battle with the Tigers on the Lawrenceville grounds. The practice was divided into secret and open session. For an hour Coaches Waiver and Purcell gave their final instructions to the eleven in absolute secrecy, and then the eleven went to an upper field, where the work was continued in the view of all who occupied the bleachers. The Cornell eleven is not overconfident of winning, and neither the coaches nor Capt. Hunt will make any predictions regarding the battle to-morrow. The fact that Capt. Hunt has a weak ankle and Costello, the right tackle, has a severe muscle bruise injures the Ithacans' chances materially, for substitutes cannot well fill their places. Costello took no part in the work to-day and is lame. However, he will play to-morrow.

Amherst, Mass., Oct. 30.—Clifford B, Lewis, bers rated under ten playing in class A.

Boston, Oct. 30.—The intercity team match tournament week was brought to a close to-day at the Brookline Country Club links by the playing of a Scotch foursome competition or a four ball event. It was open to all the women of the Massachusetts Golf Association, Women's Metropolitan Golf Association and Philadelphia Women's Golf Association took part.

Miss Rhona Adair, was one of the competitors, and the star attraction as well. She had Miss H. Curtis for a playing partner, and their opponents were Miss Georgianna Bishop, Brooklawn Country Club, and Miss Margaret Curtis, Oakley Country Club. The competitors were followed over the links by an immense gallery, who had a rare treat, as Miss Adair and Miss Curtis, whose best ball was 84, proved the victors, the best ball of their opponents being 86.

Miss Adair was at her best and lowered the women's record of the course from 80 to 86, which new record was tied later in the day by Miss Fanny C. Osgood, champion of the Women's Massachusetts Golf Association, whose individual score was 86, as was that of the best ball of herself and partner, Miss Elsa Hulbert, Morris County Golf Club. There were other competitors, but their best ball was in no instance as low as 86. The best ball of Miss Adair and Miss H. Curtis was:

Miss Osgood's card: .5 5 5 5 5 5 5 6 5-46 .8 5 4 4 4 5 5 5 5 5-40-86

AMHERST, Mass., Oct. 30.-Clifford B. Lewis,

For several days lewis has shown signs of indisposition, and yesterday his overtraining was so apparent that Coach Hart had to take him out. Daniels, '05, who has been playing end and half this season, is playing in Lewis's position, and may keep it for the rest of the season.

Football Notes.

There is talk to the effect that if Pennsylvania does not beat Harvard this year it will mean the end of the Williams coaching régime.

"It is easy picking the winners of to-morrow's games," says the Boston Herald of yesterday, which, however, does not say who the winners will be the same of t

ANNAPOLIS, Oct. 30.—The football team representing Wilmer's school for candidates for the Naval Academy defeated the rival school of Werniz here this afternoon by a score of 30 to 0.

Heldenfeld Institute team defeated the strong St. Annes A. C. at Williamsbridge yesterday afternoon by a score of 10 to 5. The game was the first of a series of three arranged between them.

Neither team was able to score in the game be-tween Manning School and Cole School at Morris Heights yesterday afternoon. It was the first scholastic game of the season in which no score was made.

EXETER, N.H., Oct. 20.—Exeter was scored on for the first time this season to day when, in the first half of the game with Tufts, the latter eleven held for downs on their 5-yard line and then rushed the ball the length of the field for a touchdown. In the second half Exeter's weight had a telling effect, and the Academy team scored three touch downs from which goals were kicked. Tufts did not endanger Exeter's goal during the second half.

battle at the Lenox A. C., this city, was put to sleep by Aurelia Herrera, the "Mexican," in a twenty round bout at Anaconda, Mon., on Thursday night. Herrera has lately done some excellent work in the ring, one of his victories being over Kid Broad. Santry was expected to last the limit, and was backed accordingly. Although Santry showed great cleverness and was shifty, he could not get away from some of the heavy punches of his rival, and received his quietus in the thirteenth round with a right hand swing on the jaw. Up to this stage the mill has been interesting, and Santry looked as if he would be able to win on points.

Billiards. '05, captain and quarter back of the Amherst football team, was sent off to-day to New Hampshire for a week or ten days rest. For several days Lewis has shown signs of More messages passed yesterday between he Brunswick Balke-Collender Company and Jake Schaefer on a match for the champion Jake Schaefer on a match for the champion-ship with George Sutton. The matter is still in an unsatisfactory state, and the company will make another demand on Schaefer for the championship emblem, then if it is not forth-coming legal proceedings will be in order to get it.

Martin Mullen, the crack Cleveland amateur, is in town and showing fine form at Daly's.

GRACE SKELTON GOES FREE. She Promised to Send No More Scurrilou

Postal Cards to Mr. King. BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 30 .- Dr. Grace E. Skelton, who was arrested on Monday for sending scurrilous postal cards through the mails, addressed to H. Le N. King, was discharged by United States Commissioner Fiske this morning upon the motion of Assistant District Attorney Casey. There was no formal hearing on the matter, the investigation being privately conducted in the office of the United States Attorney. It is understood that King, upon the promise being given by Dr. Skelton that she would not offend in like manton that she would not chend in like man-ner, withdrew his complaint and refused to prosecute further.

Attorney Casey moved to discontinue the case, basing his motion on the fact that public morals and common decency demanded such action. Dr. Skelton promised on oath before the Commissioner not to offend again, and was allowed to depart.

Dr. Skelton and Mr. King met ten years ago, when King was a Harvard student and Miss Skelton was studying medicine.

Miss Skelton asserts that a ceremony which she understood to be a marriage ceremony was performed.

was performed.

Shortly afterward Mr. King left for Europe and was away several years, coming back to Cambridge with a wife. Since his return he says that Dr. Skelton has made his life "a hell on earth," and has continually pestered him by writing him letters and postal cards, many of them of a scurrilous nature. nature.
